

Legal, Ethical and Policy Issues in Data Science

COSC2669

---

Damiano Spina
Offering Course Coordinator 2018

Group Project

- Oral Presentation (20 marks)
- Written Report (30 marks)

Oral Presentation (20%)

- Explain (in a succinct way) how the insights from the data would add value to the business.
- Target audience: the business decision maker, not another data science.
- Each member of the team (enrolled in the course) need to talk for 2 minutes max.
- Members are marked individually according to the following criteria:
  - Content -- 9 marks
  - Organisation -- 5 marks
  - Presentation Style -- 3 marks
  - Questions -- 3 marks

Submission.

Slides in .PDF format (or the script you plan to follow in case you will present a demo) need to be submitted via Canvas no later than Sunday 30 September.

Please indicate clearly the name of the speaker (member of the team) corresponding for each slide/part of the presentation.

Oral Presentation (20%)

- Team: 15 min slot
  - 10 min speaking + 5 min questions
- Slots in 2 days
  - Week 11 and 12
- Order of presentations?
  - First submits, First chooses the slot
  - Do not submit your presentation late!
    - The later you submit, the more likely to present early (week 11)

Written Report (30%)

- Deadline extended to Sunday 12 October
- 1 report per team
- Structure/Rubric
  - The problem (motivation & questions you're trying to answer) – 5 marks
  - Your proposed solution (answers) – 7 marks
  - Methodology & metrics (how to measure your success) – 5 marks
  - Impact and significance of the results – 5 marks
  - Project management – 5 marks
    - Remember to clearly describe individual contribution/roles of each of the members of the team
  - Presentation style – 3 marks
    - Remember that the report should be targeted to the business decision maker, which may not necessarily be a data scientist

Exam (25%)

- 2 hour written exam
- Date of exam: 26/10/2018
- Start time of exam: 09.15am